

Quantum optics with semiconductor photonic wires

Val Zwiller

KTH Stockholm, Sweden

In this presentation, I will review recent studies in the field of quantum optics experiments with quantum dots in bottom-up synthesized photonic nanowires, including the development of bright sources of single photons and pairs of entangled photons.